

HOW TO TAKE PART AND SUCCEED IN THE FDI MOOT

A Conversation with Leading Coaches

Moderated by:

- Michal Stanek (Charles University) and Harrison Mbori (Strathmore University)

Featuring:

- Paula Arias (University of Miami)
- Thomas Biscomb (University of Montevideo)
- Anthony Daimsis (University of Ottawa)
- Prakshal Jain (National Law School of India University)
- Veronika Lakhno (Lomonosov Moscow State University)
- Nicolas Pralica (Paris Bar School)
- Veronica Sandler (University of Buenos Aires)

With:

- Christopher Gibson and Christian Campbell (FDI Moot Directors)

Over the past 13 years, the Foreign Direct Investment International Arbitration Moot (FDI Moot) has become one of the most prestigious international student competitions. Hear some of the FDI Moot's most successful (current and recent) coaches discuss key aspects of guiding a team to FDI Moot success.

Harrison and Michal will steer the conversation through 9 topics:

1. Institutional approval, support (academic credit and funding)
2. Funding (non-institutional, sponsors, own resources)
3. Recruiting team members, organizing and motivating a team, dealing with personalities and disappointments
4. Assuring team members know enough about the law of investor State arbitration, substance and procedure
5. Research & Drafting
6. Pleading
7. Practice & (External) Feedback
8. Travel, Lodging
9. Post-Moot "Maximization" (PR, media, internal and external)

Viewers can post questions through the comments section on Facebook, and the panelists will try to answer them during the live-stream or respond to them later via the comments.